INVESTIGATING CASE OF JENKINS CAPTURE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Matthew E. Hanna, third Secretary of the American Embassy at Mexico City, has been sent a second time to Puebla to make a further investigation concerning some of the circumstances surrounding the recent kidnapping and subsequent release of William O. Jenkins, American Consular Agent. This announcement was made today by the State Department.

The department has inquired especially of Charge Summerlin regarding the payment of the ransom money to the Mexicans who held Jenkins, how it was raised and by whom.

Some anxiety also is felt regarding the physical condition of Mr. Jenkins, who is now in the American hospital at Puebla, said to be suffering from a severe rheumatic attack brought on by being compelled to sleep on damp-ground.

The State Department has not yet made formal representations to the Carranza Government regarding the murder of Lieuts. Connolly and Waterhouse by Mexicans in Lower California after the two ill-fated American flyers had lost their way in a storm and followed the Gulf of California, thinking it was the Pacific.

FOUR FAIR PLAN LOOMS LARGE IN EXPO SITUATION

SEEMS IMPOSSIBLE THAT ONE CITY CAN RAISE A SUFFICIENT AMOUNT TO PULL OFF SHOW IN PROPER STYLE—COMMISSION MEETS WEDNESDAY.

The four-fair plan for properly celebrating the Florida Purchase is looking large in consideration of fixing a site for the holding of the exposition. The idea first originated in Tampa after the business men of that city saw that it would be practically impossible for any one city in Florida to properly finance the affair so that it would be of proportions commensurate with the occasion.

The Tampa plan is to have a separate fair held in Jacksonville, Pensacola, Miami and Tampa, representing, as it were, the four corners of the state. This suggestion was hooted at at first, but after Chairman Brorein stated that he very seriously doubted the ability of any one city to finance the proper exposition, others came to the same conclusion.

The commission having in charge the preliminary arrangements for the fair will meet at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning in Jacksonville. Only Jacksonville and Pensacola will be represented at this meeting, both having agreed to properly finance the undertaking.

There is some doubt as to the exposition being awarded to either city. When the idea was first started by George Massey the legislature passed the bill creating the commission of five men and appropriating $10,000 to be used in preliminary work. As soon as this commission got together the idea of breaking the exposition up into four fairs was sprung. It was pointed out that the law did not permit of this plan. At the meeting held in this city last Tuesday all present agreed that there was no use in discussing such a plan. There was one half-hearted voice raised for the four fair plan but all of the other speakers were against it.

Logan Wants Four Fairs.

Last Friday afternoon J. J. Logan, the present Jacksonville member of the commission, met with a number of the advocates of a world's fair and told them that he wanted four fairs and that he did not want to vote for Jacksonville as the site for the exposition unless the commission could be shown that this city could produce $10,000,000. Later he said that the city should at least be able to show the commission that it could produce $5,000,000. After fully explaining why the four fair plan should be adopted even if the legislature had to be forced to change the law, he left the meeting and said that he would be bound by the wishes of the people of this city.

After Mr. Logan left the meeting which was held in the banquet hall of the chamber of commerce, those present took the matter up and discussed the suggestions of Mr. Logan and the apparent attitude of the fair commission. A resolution was finally adopted by unanimous vote of those present to the effect that Jacksonville wanted the Florida Purchase Exposition located here and did not want any four fair proposition.
